

What fruit and vegetables do fruit fly like?

These fruit and vegetables can host fruit fly eggs and larvae. They cannot be brought into South Australia or the Riverland. Additional restrictions are in place during a fruit fly outbreak. This list represents Australia's most common fruits and vegetables, but it is not a complete list.

Common fruits and vegetables apple	 apricot	 avocado	 banana	 blackberry	 blueberry	 capsicum cherry	 chilli	 cumquat	 date	 eggplant	 fig	 grapes grapefruit	 kiwifruit	 lemon	 lime	 mandarin	 mango	 mulberry nectarine	 olive	 orange	 papaya	 passion fruit	 pawpaw	 peach pear	 plum	 pomegranate	 quince	 raspberry	 strawberry*	 tomato

Other fruit and vegetable acerola	custard apple	jaboticaba	monstera	santol babaco	dragon fruit	jackfruit	nashi	sapodilla black sapote	(pink)	jujube	peacharine	soupsop breadfruit	dragon fruit	june plum	pepino	star apple cape	(yellow)	loganberry	persimmon	star fruit gooseberry	durian	longan	plumcot	tamarillo cashew apple	feijoa	loquat	pomelo	tangelo cherimoya	granadilla	lychee	prickly pear	white sapote choko	grumichama	mangosteen	rambutan citron	guava	medlar	rollinia coffee berry	hog plum	miracle fruit	rose apple *strawberries only attract Queensland fruit fly breadfruit and monstera attract only Mediterranean fruit fly